en- Testimony of omen denial

1828-1840
EARLY MEETING OF FRIENDS FOR NEW ENGLAND

A testimony of denial against Hannah Gorton

Hannah Gorton having for some years lost a right of membership among friends, but having deviated so far, as to neglect the attendance of meetings, and also to deal in spirituous liquors, having been laboured with without the desired effect, she not giving any encouragement of changing her conduct in those respects, we therefore disown her, and thus testify that she is no longer a member of our Religious Society—

Angie Anne Hull having had for some years a right of membership among friends, but having deviated so far from the good order established amongst us, as to join in marriage with a person not in membership with friends; we therefore disown her, and thus testify that she is no longer a member of our Religious Society—
